

An Olympic Welcome

Liverpool Street Station

We were pleased to make our mark with the London 2012 games by managing visual enhancement works at Liverpool Street Station. Our construction team not only installed steel corner covers at key points in the station, but have also undertaken works to various columns, improving the ambiance of the station at this high profile time, as well as installing colourful banners on the trackside, in the run up to the station.